

Terms of Service for Users.

Please read carefully before using this website.

1. Our Agreement

You are using this site to solicit bids for mining equipment and consumables. Your use of the Site is governed by these Terms of Service. By using the Site, you also agree to the Privacy Policy. Portions of the Site may have additional terms posted, which you must accept and observe in order to use those portions of the Site. These Terms of Service, along with the Privacy Policy and additional terms of the Site, make up the entire agreement between you and MineBidZ with respect to the Site, including all services offered through the Site, and supersede any prior agreements between you and MineBidZ.

2. Modifications

Mine BidZ may modify these Terms of Service at any time by posting the modified Terms of Service on the Site and by notifying you by e-mail. All changes will be effective upon our posting or sending the e-mail and will only affect your use of the Site after the effective date of the change. You are encouraged to regularly visit these Terms of Service on the Site. Your use of the Site after we provide notice of changes will be considered your agreement to those changes.

The Site is continually under development, and changes to it, including adding or deleting services and/or features, may be made at any time. MineBidZ will not be liable to you or to anyone else for any modifications to the Site. Your sole recourse for any modifications is to terminate your use of the Site.

3. Your Registration Information and Obligations

By registering as a user of the Site, you certify that: (a) you have legal capacity to enter a binding contract; and (b) you have provided (and you will maintain and update) true, accurate, current and complete information as prompted by our request forms.

Upon submission of any request form, you will receive offers to sell the requested items from our subscribers. These offers will identify each subscriber, and you will negotiate any purchase directly with them. MineBidZ is not a broker and has no interest in any transaction arising between users and subscribers of the Site. Whenever you reach an agreement to buy equipment or goods identified on this Site from any subscriber, you agree to forward to MineBidZ a copy of the Purchase Order.

You may place multiple requests for bids on the Site at any given time. MineBidZ bid request form provides a platform for putting a bid together to ensure that minimum information is provided so that all vendors may quote on the same specifications. We highly recommend that Users enter as much information in the "Description" portion of the bid as is practical. Entering all such information will help to ensure the bids match your requirements. The request form is equipped with a browse button to upload any files or drawings that you may have, which can avoid lengthy explanations over the phone.

In order to maintain the security of your account, we recommend that you exit from your account at the end of each session, in particular when using a public or shared computer.
